

Parish Preparation for The International Eucharistic Congress

The Pastoral Council decided that each church should hold something special to mark the beginning of the Eucharistic Congress. Laragh and Cliffrina both held special Masses on Sunday 10th June 2012, Carrickallen held a special Prayer Service. At the Masses Holy Communion was received under both species and in Laragh the First Communion Class performed actions to the "Our Father". Congress Flags were sold this weekend, and families are encouraged to fly them high for the week of the Congress.
