30th September 2018 – 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Anyone Who is not against Us is for Us

The comedian, Emo Phillips, tells a joke about walking over a bridge one day and seeing a man about to jump to his death. 'Stop, don't do it!' I shouted. 'Why shouldn't I?' said the other. 'There's so much to live for', I said. 'Like what?' 'Well, are you religious or atheist?' 'Religious' said the other. 'Me too. Are you Catholic or Protestant?' 'Protestant' said the other. 'Me too. Episcopalian or Baptist?' 'Baptist.' 'Wow! Me too! Are you Baptist Church of God or Baptist Church of the Lord?' 'Baptist Church of God.' 'Me too. Are you original Baptist Church of God or Reformed Baptist Church of God?' 'Reformed Baptist Church of God.' 'Hey, me too! Are you Reformed Baptist Church of God, reformation of 1879, or Reformed Baptist Church of God, reformation of 1915?' 'Reformed Baptist Church of God, reformation of 1915', the other said. 'Die, heretic scum!' I said and pushed him off.

The Gospel, and Emo Phillips, show how easy it is to forget what religion is really about.
