9. Burrows Hall Sale of Work: on Saturday 3rd November at 8.30pm. Firewood, cakes, groceries, bric-a-brac, bran tub. Come along for a good night's fun.
10. Clifferna ICA: Monthly Meeting on Monday 5th November at 8pm in St Michael's Centre. New members always welcome.
11. Laragh Foróige Club: is holding a fundraiser in aid of Cavan Autism Parents Support (CAPS) and Down Syndrome Ireland in Stradone Community Centre on Friday 16th November at 8pm. We, the members of the club, are appealing for donations of cuddly toys, books, DVDs and CDs in good condition and fit for sale. We are also appealing for donations of new and unused make up and cosmetics (for both ladies & gents).

If you have any unwanted gifts in your home, then get in touch with one of the leaders and we will gladly accept donations of any items which can be sold in order to raise funds for our chosen charities.

We would like to see you all come along and support this community project as it is our contribution to deserving charities. We will also be serving teas, coffees, cakes, buns and other goodies. It will be a chance to meet up with old friends in a relaxed atmosphere. Face Painting, Nail Painting and Kiddies Games are also on our programme of entertainment, along with a raffle for some great prizes. See you all there.

Remembering Who You Are

The famous American preacher, Fred Craddock, worked for a while as a hospital chaplain in Georgia. One day he arrived at the maternity section to find a large family cooing at a new-born baby. The child seemed unimpressed by her visitors: she kept crying and squirming in her cot. Craddock, noticing that the baby's father looked worried, said to him: 'Don't be concerned. She's not sick; she's just clearing her lungs.' 'Oh, I know she's not sick,' said the father, 'but she's mad as the devil.' Craddock was taken aback. 'Why do you say she's mad?' he asked. 'Well, wouldn't you be mad?' said the father. 'One minute you're with God in heaven, the next minute you're in Georgia!' 'You believe she was with God before she came here?' asked Craddock. 'Oh yeah,' said the father. Then Craddock asked, 'You think she'll remember?' The father said, 'Well, that's up to her mother and me. It's up to the Church. We've got to see that she remembers, 'cause if she forgets, she's a goner.'
