The Gift of Peace

If you can get through the morning without taking stimulants, if you can always be cheerful, ignoring aches and pains, if you can resist complaining and boring people with your troubles, if you can eat the same food every day and always be grateful for it, if you can understand when your loved ones are too busy to give you any time, if you can take criticism without resentment, if you can avoid jumping to conclusions about others, if you can resist gossiping, if you can ignore a friend's limited education and never correct him, if you have no difficulty treating a poor person exactly the same as a rich person, if you can cope with tension without seeking medical help, if you can relax without alcohol, if you can sleep without the help of sleeping tablets...then you are probably the family dog. On the other hand, you just may possess the gift of Christ's peace.
